He believed that a great wealth in copper laid dormant in the South, which, if properly worked, would be as profitable as lake copper. Major Hotchkiss, of Virginia, thanked Professor indifference neglects. Only the voracious crow Eggleston for drawing attention to the copper deposits in the South. Very few persons are aware of the great wealth in this mineral with which this State abounds. Forty years ago Richard Taylor made explorations and reported on this class of ore. The only difficulty in its development then was a lack of transportation facilities. That objection does not now exist, and this industry may be expected to be seen coming prominently to the front. A paper prepared by F. H. Williams, of St. Louis, Mo., on a "Volumetric Method of Estimating Manganese in Pig-Iron and Steel" was read by the secretary. It was an adaptation of the known processes. In connection with it was presented a paper on" Manganese Determination in Steele," prepared by William Kent, of Pittsburg, Pa. These papers were discussed by Drs. Drown, Sharpless and Dudover the chemical tests of steel rails, though he recognized the full importance of both. Considcipal participants being Drs. Raymond and Dudley. At the afternoon session Dr. Sharpless, of Boston, made a statement with reference to the black band iron ores of West Virginia, F. P. Dewey, of Tennessee, read a paper on Rich Hilliron ores. O. > > The Stranded Steamer Maccdonia. London, May 31.—The position of the Anchor Line steamer Macedonia, ashore near the Casey, assault with intent to kill Martha A. Ber-Mull of Kintyre Light-House, is very critical. She gevin; Thomas O'Neal, assault with intent to kill is considerably damaged forward, and her foremast is gone by the deek. The wreck is not approachable except from seaward. Tug-boats are in attendance, and efforts are being made to float her, but their success is doubtful. Her cargo is being discharged into lighters, but a considerable portion of it in a damaged condition. The value of the vessel and cargo is estimated at £70,000. There were no passengers abourd the steamer. Eighty head of the cattle of board the stranded steamer Macedonia, a valuable horse, and the ship's plate and papers have been saved. The sea sweeps her decks fore and aft. Rocks have pierced her side and her cargo is washing out. The surveyor thinks she will soon break up.

Probable Suicide.

CINCINNATI, May 31.-At half-past one cleek this afternoon Edwin T. Dunn, a traveling salesman for Jeffras, Seeiy & Co., fell from the fourth story of the Emery Hotel to the sidewalk, on Vine street, near Fourth. His death was instantaneous. Mr. Dunn was subject to fits of despondency and had been noticed several days past y his employers on account of his eccentric behavior, loss of appetite, and sleeplessness. Mr. Thompson, of the firm, had just taken him into the hotel to go to bed, and had left him in his room but a moment when he fell. It is supposed Army of the Camberland.

Penusylvania Knights Templar. SCRANTON, PA., May 31.—The twenty eighth annual conclave of the Grand Command ery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania convened here this evening, and will continue in session until Thursday. Several commanderies arrived during the day, among them the Chasseur Commandery and St. John Commandery of Pittsburg. Many commanderies will arrive to-morrow. The city is rapidly filling up with prominent Masons and visitors from all parts of the State, who come to witness the festivities. The grand parade will take place on Thursday morning.

The Confederate Cotton Loan. London, May 31.—The yearly meeting of the bondholders of the Confederate Cotton Lean of 1863 was held to-day at the Cannon street hotel. The general tenor of the speeches was to the effect that aithough the bondholders had no legal claim on the American Government, something might be done if a friendly appeal was made. The speakers seemed to base their hopes on the fact that the Bank of England still holds some residue

Schooner Sunk. Boston, Mass., May 31.—The schooner Ruth Thomas, of Bangor, from Port Johnson for Salem with coal, was run into May 29 during a thick fog off Chattham by the schooner Flora Condon, of Belfast, from an eastern port for Brunswick, Ga, and so much injured that she sunk in four minutes. The cantain and crew were saved by the schooner Abbie E. Willard and brought to Salem. The damage to the Flora Condon is unknown.
